SETTLEMENTS AND VERDICTS

SETTLEMENTS AND VERDICTS IN ALL CASES DEPEND ON VARIOUS FACTORS AND CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH ARE UNIQUE TO EACH CASE. THEREFORE, PAST RESULTS IN CASES ARE NOT A GUARANTEE OR PREDICTION OF SIMILAR RESULTS IN FUTURE CASES WHICH THE MICHIEHAMLETT FIRM AND ITS LAWYERS MAY UNDERTAKE.

$2.5 million settlement for a 38-year-old male in a wheelchair exiting a bus in Virginia when the wheelchair ramp fell, causing him to fall forward onto the pavement. His motorized wheelchair fell on top of him.

$2 million wrongful death settlement for wife whose husband, a truck driver, died when he was hit by a truck while he was on foot giving directions to a fellow truck driver.

$1.1 million settlement in a motorcycle accident case in Virginia in which an oncoming driver crossed the center line and hit the motorcyclist.

$1.9 million wrongful death settlement in Virginia for wife whose husband died in multi-vehicle accident caused by slippery road conditions due to sudden storm.

$2.8 million wrongful death settlements against a company and its employee who was driving while intoxicated, crossed a double-yellow line and struck a Ford Taurus, killing an elderly woman, her daughter, and grandson. The employee driver had a history of D.U.I. and drunk in public arrests and convictions. Claims were filed asserting negligence by the driver and the company's negligence in hiring and retaining this individual as a driver of company trucks. Case was filed in Fairfax County, Virginia.
